

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
SHERMAN DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA	§
v.	§	No. 4:18CR 106
	§	Judge CRONE
SYED RAZVI	§

FACTUAL BASIS

Syed Razvi, the defendant, hereby stipulates and agrees that at all times relevant to the Information herein, the following facts were true:

1. The defendant, Syed Razvi, who is changing his plea to guilty, is the same person charged in the Information.
2. The events described in the Information occurred in the Eastern District of Texas and elsewhere.
3. The defendant and at least one other person made an agreement to commit the crimes of smuggling goods out of the United States and violating the International Emergency Economic Powers Act as described in the Information.
4. The defendant knew the unlawful purpose of the agreement and joined in it willfully, that is with the intent to further the unlawful purpose.
5. One of the conspirators during the existence of the conspiracy knowingly committed at least one of the overt acts described in the Information in order to accomplish some object or purpose of the conspiracy.

6. The defendant knowingly exported merchandise as described in the Information.

7. The defendant's exports were contrary to the laws and regulations described in the Information.

8. The defendant knew the exports were contrary to the laws and regulations described in the Information.

9. The defendant exported items, as described in the Information, from the United States.

10. The items the defendant exported required an export license for the destination country.

11. The defendant failed to obtain a license or other authorization from the Department of Commerce prior to exporting the items and attempting to export the items.

12. The defendant did so knowingly and willfully.

13. The defendant, Syed Razvi, identified customers that wanted to purchase Radiation Hardened Integrated Circuits (RHICs) for use in China's space program and Russia's space program, took orders for the RHICs from those customers, and relayed those orders to a Co-Conspirator known as "PZ." The defendant, Syed Razvi, arranged for a total of approximately $1,575,983 to be placed into a bank account controlled by Co-Conspirator PZ so Co-Conspirator PZ could use the money to purchase the RHICs for the Chinese and Russian customers. Co-Conspirator PZ created false paperwork and made false statements in an attempt to hide the conspiracy from United States officials.

From the Eastern District of Texas and elsewhere Co-Conspirator PZ sent orders for RHICs to two U.S. companies, certified that his company, American Coating Technologies, was the end-user of the RHICs knowing that it was not, and used the money that Syed Razvi had arranged to be placed into a bank account to pay for the RHICs. Co-Conspirator PZ, received the RHICs that he had ordered, removed them from their original packaging, repackaged them, falsely declared that they were “touch screen parts,” and shipped them out of the United States.
